From the comptr to Govt.,

Letter no. 7013/J.A.D.B.1297 31-2-22

Requests to be informed whether Sri Chaffalamma Devare temple at Thorrahalli in the Malur Taluk is a muzrai institution.

As the institution has neither land inam or cash grant from the Govt, it is not a Muzrai institution in that sense. It is a private institution ~~to be~~ founded by a private person. In Dec 15, it was proposed to be taken under Govt management, the institution being maintained out of the income from the temple jatra. (vide G.O. no. 1761-3/Muz 386-13-4 § 25-1-16).

This procedure seems to me to be rather unusual. Are there any precedents?

As precedents are not readily traceable, it is subd for orders as to whether the Comptr may be informed that pending the taking over of the institution under Govt management, & treating it as a Museum institution, the levy of fees at the Jatra has been sanctd.
